

GE Aerospace Summer 2025 Labor Negotiations

What's Happening: This summer, GE Aerospace and three labor unions (along with several of their affiliates) representing GE Aerospace employees will negotiate new labor agreements to replace the current agreements.

Who's Involved

Unions at the Table:

IUE-CWA and their affiliates, as well as the UAW and IAM

Employees Represented:

3,200 across 6 U.S. sites

GE Aerospace is committed to bargaining in good faith this summer with the unions representing our U.S. employees, continuing a partnership that spans more than five decades. We're proud to have successfully negotiated 16 consecutive national contracts that reflect our investment in our people, our communities, and our commitment to a strong future.

Timeline for Negotiations

U.S. Facilities Represented This Summer

Our Employees

3,200
employees represented in these negotiations

28,000
employees in the U.S.

53,000
employees around the world

GE Aerospace